

Executive Committee Meeting

May 6, 2019 at 3:30 pm

Discussions:

- Discussion of racism related incidents and meetings at PCDS:
The Executive Council discussed ways that the PDTA leaders could support the staff with the recent incidents around racism at PCSD. Building representatives shared some concerns that are going around the buildings and the Executive Council discussed some possible solutions to these concerns.
- Constitution Revisions Status
Copies have been given to building representatives in case any member would like to see a paper version of the constitution. Electronic versions will be emailed out to the membership before voting. The date of voting is still pending on negotiations.
- Postings (Certificated/Para)
Postings for SRPs will begin on May 15th.
- 2018 Member Transfer Survey is now closed. The PDTA office is analyzing the data.
- Upcoming Budget/BOE Vote – PDTA
  - i. BOE interviews/endorsement process
PDTA committee will be interviewing all candidates for BOE Monday evening. From that interview, PDTA will roll out a public position for the association. The association will choose to endorse 2, 1 or no candidate.
  - ii. Budget vote signs are available at the PDTA office
  - iii. Electioneering discussion: All correspondence from PDTA that has endorsed candidates is not allowed to be shared through school email. The Speak out article that will be posted in May will go on the PDTA webpage only. If staff would like it printed, please request so from the PDTA office. Building representatives are encouraged to put in their minutes that all political based communication can be found at pdta.org.
- PDTA Elections Process
  - i. Be sure all building level positions are filled and the outcomes have been communicated to Karen Kalinowski
- Contract Ratification processes: Once an agreement has been reached the negotiations team will present the potential contract to the membership. After the presentation, the membership will vote on the contract.
